DETAILED ACTION

1. This Action is in response to the election of species received 2/21/07. Applicant has elected without traverse Group I, which corresponds to claims 1-8 and 17-19. Claims 9-16 will not be examined in this office action. Note further that Applicant had requested that claim 22, a newly added claim that depends from claim 18 be considered. Examiner has decided against this due to the fact that claim 22 (submitted 11/29/01) states "22. (NEW) The method of support of environmental operation recited in claim 18, wherein: " and is followed by no limitation. This is obviously not examinable.

Drawings

2. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the method steps must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.\

Claim Objections

3. Claim 18 is objected to because of the following informalities: "...above evaluation results are informed a...". Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claim 1 recites the limitation "the results" there is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.
6. Claim 7 recites the limitations "the design department" and "the environmental management department" there is insufficient antecedent basis for the limitations in the claim.
7. Claim 19 appears to be just a random statement. Please show support for in specification and explain intended meaning.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

10. Claims 1-8 and 17-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over www.environdec.com as retrieved from the wayback machine as of June 16, 2000 (Environ).

Environ teaches that companies and organizations will be evaluated based on the environmental performance of their products and services (C, ii). Further it teaches creation of a report by environmental evaluators who analyze environmental performance (E, I) and this summation includes raw data from suppliers of materials and the effect on the environment thereof. Environ also teaches that results of these reports are used to influence design of products thereafter created.

Environ fails to teach that a third party agreement is signed between a contractor/evaluator and manufacturer of the product for which and EDP or environmental effect report is being prepared for.

However it is old and well known for companies to review their products before entry into market. To do that a manufacturer requires contractor to review products. It is inherent that a confidentiality agreement would need to be signed between the two parties. The examiner takes Official Notice that confidentiality agreements are old and well established in business as a convenient way for a parties to keep information/data about a product or otherwise confidential. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have included the step of including Eco-Evaluator evaluating a product and signing of confidentiality agreement between the two in Environ by hiring a contractor for instance because the skilled artisan would have recognized that this business practice allows a manufacturer of a product to evaluate a potential product before it being released on market clearly applicable to the manufacture of any type of product. These advantages are well known to those skilled in the art.
